

PINE BROOK PROMOTES ANNIE SLOYER TO CFO AND CLAIRE HARVEY TO PRINCIPAL

Firm also Strengthens Investor Relations Team with Two Vice President Appointments

NEW YORK – January 26, 2016 – Pine Brook, an investment firm focused on building businesses in the financial services and energy sectors, today announced the promotions of Annie Sloyer to chief financial officer, and Claire Harvey to principal on the energy investment team.

Sloyer, who joined Pine Brook as controller in April 2010, has more than 15 years of financial and private equity investment management experience. Prior to joining Pine Brook, she spent three years as a fund controller with Olympus Capital Holdings Asia, and more than five years as a manager at PricewaterhouseCoopers. Sloyer holds a B.S. in Accounting from Washington University's John M. Olin School of Business and is a Certified Public Accountant.

Harvey, who is based in Pine Brook's Houston office, joined the firm in March 2014 as a member of the energy investment team. She represents Pine Brook as a director of Red Bluff Resources, LLC. Prior to Pine Brook, Harvey served as a principal at TPH Partners (an affiliate of Tudor, Pickering, Holt & Co.), where she focused on investments in the upstream, midstream and oilfield services sectors. Harvey holds a Bachelor of Business Administration from Texas A&M University and an MBA from Rice University's Jones School of Business.

"Annie has proven herself as an invaluable member of Pine Brook and we are pleased to recognize her continued dedication by making her a member of the senior executive team," said Howard Newman, Pine Brook's president and CEO. "Claire's promotion is also well deserved, following her strong contributions on a number of our energy investments and the important role she has played in establishing and growing our Houston office."

Additionally, Pine Brook named two vice presidents to the investor relations team, Julie Hart and Thomas Nielsen.

Hart joined the firm in 2011 after spending more than seven years at HarbourVest Partners in Boston, where she was a marketing coordinator in the investor relations group. Nielsen, who joined Pine Brook in August 2012, was previously a senior marketing associate at UBP Asset Management with responsibilities in investor relations, client services and reporting.
