Trinitas Capital Management Closes Investment from Pine Brook

DALLAS—June 22, 2017 – Trinitas Capital Management, a Dallas-based collateralized loan obligation (CLO) manager, today announced that Pine Brook, an investment firm focused on building businesses in the financial services and energy sectors, has closed its previously announced $250 million line of equity commitment in the company.

“We’re very pleased to partner with Pine Brook and look forward to continue building the platform into a world-class CLO issuer,” said Gibran Mahmud, chief executive officer at Trinitas Capital Management. “We believe that Pine Brook’s track record and experience with financial institutions will be a great asset for Trinitas Capital Management, and that access to their global investor base will continue to strengthen the capitalization of the company.”

“We are excited to back Gibran Mahmud and his team through this investment,” said Bharath Srikrishnan, managing director of Pine Brook.

Trinitas Capital Management simultaneously announced the closing of a $717 million CLO, known as Trinitas VI LLC. This is Trinitas Capital Management’s largest offering since the Company’s founding in 2015. “Our success with Trinitas VI shows strong continuing institutional interest in CLOs, and demonstrates our investors’ confidence in our platform and ability to structure transactions,” added Mahmud.
